

Xavier Gallais has been appointed as a Partner in Accuracy

Neuilly-sur-Seine, January 21, 2009: Xavier Gallais joined Accuracy in 2006 as Vice-President and has been made a Partner as of January 2009.

As a partner in Accuracy, Xavier Gallais specialises in providing clients with transaction support and the assessment of special situations.

Xavier Gallais (age 38, a graduate of the HEC business School 95) began his career at Arthur Andersen in 1996. Since then, he has held various responsibilities in the financial departments of industrial groups: in 2001 he joined the Suez Environnement group before becoming Financial Director of the company LEA in 2005. Xavier brought his knowledge and experience to Accuracy, when he joined the company in 2006.

Accuracy employs 105 consultants, including 70 in Paris and is emerging as one of the major players in the market. It has offices in Paris, Madrid, Amsterdam and Milan.

Accuracy has developed a new model in financial consultancy services. The company undertakes "tailored" assignments in the corporate finance field, and does not intervene in regulated professional activities (auditing or public accounting, etc). Accuracy's areas of expertise include transaction support, corporate assessments and valuations, support with dispute resolution and litigation, in addition to corporate recovery.

Accuracy is jointly owned by its associates and the Aon group, a world leader in consultancy and brokerage services, listed on the NYSE.
