

Accuracy names three new partners.

Neuilly-sur-Seine, February 10, 2010

Accuracy has recently appointed three new partners at its Paris office, which now has a total of 80 consultants. The promotion of Jean-Baptiste de Courcel, Frédéric Loeper and Henri Philippe brings the number of partners at the Paris office to 17.

Jean-Baptiste de Courcel, (age 35, Paris IX Dauphine University, DESCF) has been made a partner in Accuracy. He began his career with Arthur Andersen in 1999 before participating in the creation of Accuracy in late 2004.

Jean-Baptiste de Courcel regularly works as a financial expert in litigation, dispute resolution and arbitration procedures. He also performs transaction support assignments on behalf of major industrial and service sector groups.

Frédéric Loeper, (age 34, ESCP) has become a partner in Accuracy. After five years with Arthur Andersen, he took part in the creation of Accuracy in late 2004, specialising in assistance, consultancy and valuation assignments during the disposal and acquisition of companies. He has chiefly worked on behalf of major industrial groups and investment funds. Frédéric Loeper has developed extensive expertise in the field of defence contracts.

Henri Philippe, (age 36, ESC Bordeaux, MBA, Doctor of Finance) began his career with international auditing companies and quickly became a specialist in the valuation sector. In 2004 he joined Close Brothers Fairness, a company providing consultancy services in the field of corporate valuations and fairness opinions.

With Accuracy since 2006, he has carried out numerous valuation and fairness assessment assignments. He has now been promoted to the position of partner in the firm. Henri Philippe runs finance classes for the HEC group and Paris-Dauphine University. He is also the author of numerous articles in academic and professional journals and joint author of "Motivation Financière des Dirigeants" (The Financial Motivation of Managers) which was recently published by Economica.

Accuracy is one of the market's key players, and now has 140 consultants in Europe including 25 partners. Its offices are located in Paris, Madrid, Amsterdam, Milan, Frankfurt and Brussels.

Accuracy has developed a new model in financial consultancy services. The company undertakes "tailored" assignments in the corporate finance field, and does not intervene in regulated professional activities (auditing or public accounting, etc). Accuracy proposes five services: Transaction Support & Advisory, Forensics, Litigation & Arbitration, Valuation & Fairness Opinion, Corporate Recovery Services, Economics & Business Analysis

Accuracy is jointly owned by its partners and the Aon group, the world leader in Consultancy & Brokerage services (listed on the NYSE).
