Accuracy strengthens transaction practice with the appointment of Bas Dantuma as senior manager

Amsterdam, 3 July 2017

Accuracy, the financial advisory firm, has appointed M&A specialist Bas Dantuma (36) as a senior manager within its transactions practice.

Dantuma joins from EY, where he advised multiple private equity investors and multinational companies for more than 10 years, mainly in the Consumer Markets, Retail and Technology & Media sectors.

Leontine Koens-Betz, Accuracy's Managing Partner for the Netherlands, said: "We have strong growth ambitions for the Netherlands and Bas's appointment will allow us to develop our transactions practice. Bas thinks and acts like an entrepreneur, helps achieve good outcomes for acquisitions through his pragmatic approach, and has extensive experience in integrating new business units into an existing company. The addition of Bas takes our team in the Netherlands to almost 25 professionals."

Prior to EY, Dantuma worked in Paris as a business analyst for Primagaz (subsidiary of SHV), which he joined immediately after completing his Masters in Corporate Finance & Business Administration at the RijksUniversiteit Groningen.

Dantuma: "Accuracy is highly regarded by Dutch transactions advisory practitioners and the entrepreneurial spirit of Accuracy advisors makes joining the firm a perfect fit with my own ambitions and expertise. I look forward to helping Accuracy grow its business in the coming years."
