

Accuracy is pleased to announce the recruitment of a new partner:
Erik van Duijvenvoorde

Neuilly-sur-Seine, [11 January 2011]

Erik van Duijvenvoorde has over 20 years' experience in financial advisory services and will strengthen Accuracy's European partnership thanks to his considerable knowledge of private equity and his British culture. He will share his time between Accuracy's offices in Paris and London.

Erik van Duijvenvoorde joined Accuracy as a partner in December 2010.

He previously spent over 2 years with European Capital, a private equity investment fund, where he led the European teams responsible for due diligence, valuations and portfolio monitoring. Prior to joining European Capital in 2007, Erik gained extensive experience with Price Waterhouse and then PwC in both Transaction Services and Business Recovery Services, first in London and, from 1999, in Paris.

Erik is a British national and a Fellow of the Chartered Association of Certified Accountants in the United Kingdom.

Accuracy is a leading independent financial advisory firm with 28 partners and 190 consultants. Accuracy has offices located in Paris, Madrid, Amsterdam, Milan, Frankfurt, Brussels and London. Accuracy's revenues grew by 33% in 2010 to €35 million.

Accuracy provides truly independent financial advisory services free of all regulatory constraints. Accuracy makes sense of the numbers and assists clients with clear and relevant conclusions, facilitating decisions in situations such as acquisitions, disposals, disputes, restructuring or corporate difficulties. Accuracy has 5 service offerings: Transaction Support & Advisory; Forensics, Litigation & Arbitration; Valuation & Fairness Opinion; Corporate Recovery Services; Economics & Business Analysis. Accuracy is co-owned by its partners and AON Corporation, the leading global provider of risk management services, insurance and reinsurance brokerage, listed on the NYSE.
