

Global advisory firm Accuracy promotes two new partners

Paris, 25 January 2021

Accuracy, the global independent advisory firm, has promoted two new partners as part of its continued growth. Charlene Burrige, in London and Florence Westermann in Accuracy's Paris office. These promotions bring Accuracy's total number of partners to 52, across 13 countries.

Charlène Burrige

Charlene Burrige worked at a Big Four firm for nine years, before joining Accuracy in 2015. Based in Accuracy's London office, Charlene specialises in transaction and strategic advisory services. She has extensive experience advising strategic and financial investors on transaction processes including both sell side and buy side due diligence, carve-outs, SPA support and completion accounts. She also has experience of business modelling, valuation, refinancing, restructuring, market analysis, assessment of complex damages in international arbitration and forensic investigations.

Florence Westermann

Florence Westermann joined Accuracy in 2006 to contribute to the development of the restructuring practice, after acquiring initial experience at a receiver and a Big Four firm for three years. Based in Accuracy's Paris office, Florence has extensive and practical knowledge of the French restructuring environment as well as financial expertise to support companies in difficult situations or advise financial investors and debt holders. She also has significant experience in transaction support services for both corporate groups and investment funds.

Frédéric Duponchel, CEO of Accuracy, says: "We are proud to have Charlene and Florence join the Accuracy Partnership. During their time at Accuracy, both have made an enormous contribution to their respective practices in the London and Paris offices.

"In her six years with Accuracy, Charlene has demonstrated expertise in advising on complex transaction matters, whilst Florence has been hugely instrumental in helping the Restructuring team go from strength to strength since she joined Accuracy in 2006."

"Their extensive skills and experience will contribute considerably to the continuous growth and development of the firm, ensuring that our clients continue to receive the highest levels of service."
