

The firm reinforces its financial services expertise

Enrique Reina, new partner specialised in banking at the financial consultancy Accuracy

9 March 2023 – The international financial and strategic advisory firm Accuracy is expanding its team in Spain with the integration of Enrique Reina as a new partner, specialised in the banking sector.

Enrique Reina has extensive experience in the field of financial institutions, consulting and risk analysis and management. He joins Accuracy after five years as a supervisor and risk specialist at the Bank of Spain, where, among other matters, he coordinated supervisory dialogue with the senior management of banks regarding their investment portfolios, participated in different international working groups (mainly from the SSM, EBA & Basel) and reviewed policies, procedures and regulations for the management of banking market, liquidity and IRRBB risks.

In addition, during his extensive professional career, he has worked in important entities such as Banco Alcalá, Qaracter Differential, Banesto, the investment firm Blue Oak Capital and the Spanish association of banks and savings banks CECA.

Enrique Reina has a degree in Economics, Actuarial and Financial Sciences and Business Management and Administration from the Carlos III University of Madrid. He also undertook postgraduate studies in quantitative finance from the School of Applied Finance (EFA-AFI), stock market analysis and management of portfolios from the Institute of Stock Market Studies (IEB) and financial engineering from Columbia University in New York.

In addition, he has taught at institutions such as Columbia University (New York), Carlos III University, Comillas Pontifical University (ICAI - ICADE), the School of Applied Finance (EFA - AFI) or the Business Institute (IE).

Enrique Reina will be one of more than 60 Accuracy partners who, together with a team of more than 500 consultants, provide fully independent advice to clients in Accuracy's 17 international offices around the world.

Eduard Saura, managing partner of Accuracy in Spain, has commented on the appointment: “We are delighted with the addition of Enrique Reina to our firm. His extensive experience and his first-rate international training will be a great contribution to continue consolidating our position as leading advisers in such a crucial area for the economy as banking and financial services both in our country and internationally.”
