PRESS RELEASE

Accuracy appoints Tom Rayfield as Partner to further strengthen its UK Restructuring practice

London, 16 March 2026

Accuracy is pleased to announce the appointment of Tom Rayfield as a Partner in its UK office, further reinforcing the firm's growth in this strategic area.

Tom brings nearly 20 years of experience supporting corporates, lenders and investors in complex and distressed situations. He has advised on significant and often high-profile mandates, delivering a full range of restructuring services - from capital structuring and options analysis to formal restructuring and insolvency processes. His experience covers a breadth of sectors including financial services, oil and gas, retail, manufacturing and automotive.

He joins Accuracy's UK restructuring practice, to work alongside Partners James Cook and Mark Patterson as the firm continues to expand its senior restructuring team in the UK.

Frédéric Duponchel, Chairman of Accuracy, commented:
"In an economic environment characterised by rapid change and persistent uncertainty, the need for transformation and restructuring services are becoming increasingly frequent. Tom Rayfield's experience will be a significant asset in supporting our clients as they navigate these challenging contexts. His appointment further underlines Accuracy's momentum and its commitment to expanding its footprint in the UK market."
Accuracy remains focused on delivering senior-led, high impact advice to support clients in their most critical strategic and financial decisions.

Tom Rayfield - Partner
Tom specialises in restructuring and provides hands-on, pragmatic financial and strategic advice across a broad range of situations. He has led numerous UK and cross border engagements covering financial advisory, liquidity management, balance sheet restructurings, accelerated M&A and formal insolvency processes.
Before joining Accuracy, he worked at Alvarez & Marsal and PwC. Tom is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and is JIEB qualified.
